Art of Hosting: Beyond the Basics
Depth, breadth, power and friendship

This is a 3 day retreat for seasoned leaders and audacious change makers. The scope, complexity and scale of work we are being asked to engage with continues to grow. Now is the time to gather, take breath and learn together. The next level of training is here, are you ready?

HOW CAN WE SUSTAINDEPTH WITH THE INCREASING SCALE, BREADTH AND COMPLEXITY OF OUR WORK?

HOW CAN SHIFTING OUR UNDERSTANDING OF POWER REDEFINE HOW WE ENGAGE IN CHANGE?

HOW CAN WE PRACTICE FRIENDSHIP AS A CRITICAL STRATEGIC PILLAR FOR SOCIETAL TRANSFORMATION?

We will be learning advanced process design, hearing stories of iterative long term strategic interventions, experiencing our own limits as leaders and exploring cutting edge change theory. Bring all you’ve got. Don’t hold back and don’t be attached. Come with your ongoing projects, insights from your work and places you can practically apply what we learn together.

Caitlin Frost is an international facilitator, coach and teacher working with transformation and meaningful conversation. She has a deep practice in The Work.

Chris Corrigan has spent the last 20 years working at the intersection between indigenous and non-indigenous systems, organizations and ways of thinking.

Tuesday Ryan Hart has walked out of traditional service provision and advocacy and walked on to become a new kind of community/ organizational change-maker.

Tim Merry is a long time social entrepreneur, slam poet and master facilitator. His work in all sectors creates the conditions for people to solve their own problems.

Caitlin Frost
Tim@myrgan.com
Caitlin.frost@gmail.com

Tuesday Ryan Hart
Caitlin.frost@gmail.com

Chris Corrigan

Tim Merry

Art of Hosting: Beyond the Basics
Depth, breadth, power and friendship

This is a 3 day retreat for seasoned leaders and audacious change makers. The scope, complexity and scale of work we are being asked to engage with continues to grow. Now is the time to gather, take breath and learn together. The next level of training is here, are you ready?

HOW CAN WE SUSTAINDEPTH WITH THE INCREASING SCALE, BREADTH AND COMPLEXITY OF OUR WORK?

HOW CAN SHIFTING OUR UNDERSTANDING OF POWER REDEFINE HOW WE ENGAGE IN CHANGE?

HOW CAN WE PRACTICE FRIENDSHIP AS A CRITICAL STRATEGIC PILLAR FOR SOCIETAL TRANSFORMATION?

We will be learning advanced process design, hearing stories of iterative long term strategic interventions, experiencing our own limits as leaders and exploring cutting edge change theory. Bring all you’ve got. Don’t hold back and don’t be attached. Come with your ongoing projects, insights from your work and places you can practically apply what we learn together.

Caitlin Frost is an international facilitator, coach and teacher working with transformation and meaningful conversation. She has a deep practice in The Work.

Chris Corrigan has spent the last 20 years working at the intersection between indigenous and non-indigenous systems, organizations and ways of thinking.

Tuesday Ryan Hart has walked out of traditional service provision and advocacy and walked on to become a new kind of community/ organizational change-maker.

Tim Merry is a long time social entrepreneur, slam poet and master facilitator. His work in all sectors creates the conditions for people to solve their own problems.