

The Art of Participatory Leadership

Armidale | 3 - 5 April 2017

What's possible when we intentionally connect and collaborate for a thriving region?

The Art of Participatory Leadership (also known as the Art of Hosting and Harvesting Conversations that Matter) training offers simple and powerful participatory models, processes and practices to work with others through complexity, uncertainty and change.

If you want to learn new ways of working in deep collaboration with others, you are warmly invited to join us.

What will we explore, learn & practice?

- The Art of Hosting Conversations That Matter as a core leadership framework, practice and skill set.
- Simple and powerful social tools such as: Circle, World Café, Appreciative Inquiry, Open Space Technology, ProAction Café, Designing for Wiser Action, storytelling and more.
- Complementary models and frameworks including complexity theory and practice, and self-managed organisations
- Authentic leadership and working with emergence
- Real world application

Who is it for?

People who want to explore the power of collective creativity, social intelligence, and collaboration to improve their communities, teams, and organisations.

The training will be hosted by experienced Art of Hosting practitioners from Jeder Institute, Purpose Partners and the Campfire Co-op, a collaboration committed to nourishing Participatory Leadership in Australia, and a group of emerging practitioners apprenticing at the training.

The training is also sponsored by the New England Sector Support Team (NESST), which has assisted us in keeping costs down. We are grateful for NESST's contribution to their community.

We look forward to welcoming you, your questions, your projects and your contributions.

Participation fees – a sliding scale

$AU450 - $950 (excluding GST)

A question we have been exploring is how to honour the diversity of economic factors that would encourage people to join us in participatory leadership work.

We invite you to be in this exploration with us as we look to cover all costs, contribute to supporting the international community and allow the hosts to receive some payment in recognition of their offering.

We offer a sliding scale of $AU450 - $950 (excluding GST) that will include participation in the 3 day training, food and resources. We have made accommodation a separate issue from the training - we encourage you to stay at Echidna Gully with the whole group to get the added benefits of evening and morning activities, and understand that some locals will not be able to do this. You can check out accommodation options here.

So, with our sliding scale, you decide what you consider to be a fair price for this training, or within your training budget, and we also hope that you consider offering a little more which could support others to attend. If this is still beyond your capacity, please talk to us, or indicate this on your registration form. Help us walk our talk to assist as many willing people as possible to attend.
