Collaborating for Change Masterclass

How can collaborative practices enable us to respond to our unprecedented societal challenges?

Many of our societal challenges are unprecedented. Our predominant mechanistic approach is no longer fit for the complexity of the challenges. A Living Systems worldview where responses result from interconnectivity, collaboration and diversity open the potential to discover new collective intelligence for societal innovation. Learning new collaborative practices and skills is the entry into a more connected way of working.

No matter what sector you’re in, you can contribute to positive change. Learn how to take collaborative action on the big issues that you and your organisation care about by building a community around a shared purpose.

You will learn to
• Design collaborative initiatives and projects
• Host meaningful conversations and harvest actionable insights
• Introduce the benefits of participatory leadership to your own field
• Apply Art of Hosting techniques to your projects and challenges
• Use practical tools to increase your positive impact
• Be more resilient and equipped for adapting to an ever-changing world
• Leverage models for working with complexity, conflict and emergence

Costs
Our three-day training costs €1600 (incl. VAT) for corporates and €1200 (incl. VAT) for individuals, SMEs and nonprofits. This covers:
• Workshops with Art of Hosting practitioners and Impact Hub experts
• A (digital) workbook to support your continued learning
• Daily vegetarian lunch, fairly sourced coffee and tea, and fresh fruit
• Dinner and a community activity on the second evening of the program (Friday)

Please note that this course is non-residential; participants should arrange their own accommodation.

Dates are 3-5 September 2020
Early bird - save €200 registering before 31 March!

Discounts
Impact Hub members are eligible for a subsidy of up to 40% of the price. Please contact Laura Grassi at laura.grassi@impacthub.net to check if you are eligible for a discount.
We also offer a 10% discount to each additional participant from the same organisation.

In this experiential training, you’ll be guided by an international team of Art of Hosting practitioners with combined experience in diverse sectors, from government to business to non-profit.

Drawing from our Art of Hosting methods, tools, mental models and results achieved over the past decade, learn how to enable participatory leadership and societal transformation through building ecosystems for action around the key issues you care about. Together with the hosting team and other participants, including impact entrepreneurs, policymakers and corporate innovators, you will dig deeper into the worldviews that underpin and sometimes even hinder your work.

Your hosting team is Laura Grassi, Maria Scordialos, Rowan Simonsen and Tatiana Glad.
